

Issue # 3 May 2012

Welcome to the May edition of Rabbit Runaway Roundup, our quick new monthly newsletter via e-mail.

Orphan of the Month - Midnight

A gorgeous young boy, he is a black lop with a distinctive 'split' ear after a fight with another bun at his previous home (this has long healed). Midnight is very clean with his litter tray and extremely affectionate. He will do well with free reign as a single house bunny. He will lay in your arms and snuggle for as long you let him.

He can be a little bit defensive of his space after past experiences so he will not suit families with young children. This should improve as he settles into a stable home with loving owners who handle him frequently. He has been de sexed and vaccinated. Contact RRO for further details or to arrange to meet him.

Vote for Rabbit Runaway at Grill'd

We have been selected for the month of May at the Grill'd Fountain Gate store. The more votes that go in the Rabbit Run Community Matters tin the more chance we have of winning the $300 prize.

Please get down and enjoy a great burger and vote for us. The prize money is desperately needed, with a back-log of bunnies requiring de sexing and vaccination at the moment.

Winter is coming

Please make sure buns are inside and protected from the weather, with a bed to keep them off the floor.

Our older buns (those 6 yrs and over) are likely to have some arthritis as years progress so keep those ageing joints warm so they are comfortable. Kmart sells polar fleece topped flat mats for pet beds for $8. Super cheap!

Donations

We currently have several bunnies requiring vet care, including de sexing, medicating and vaccinating so this is a great time to donate money towards care. Remember donations over $2 are tax deductible.

This is also a call for donations of fresh greens, good quality oaten hay, litter, biodegradable clothes detergent or other cleaning supplies so we can replenish our stocks.

We are also looking for a clothes dryer for the bunnies' towels if anyone can help!

Spotted!

He was sooo cute it was impossible not to give him a pat. Clever huh?

Adoption: There are many other new bunnies needing a home - either permanent or foster. The website has been updated with the new candidates so if you are looking please check it, or if you know someone who is, please direct them to our Orphans page.

RR0 Fundraising Group

Expressions of interest are being taken for a Fundraising Group. This group would meet independently and plan, execute and maintain the various fundraising ventures to keep money coming in.

Please contact info@rabbitrunaway.org.au if you are interested.
